A warm welcome back to Erasmus Aiello, our Sicilian connection, favorite Italian tenor, and the guy who makes the best bread on the Monterey Peninsula. Our Italian classics program will leave you humming with sunny thoughts of the old country.

Next week we visit France with the return of Musique et Poésie to Church in the Forest on Saturday, April 16, at 3 pm. Come enjoy a benefit concert with poetry recited by local students, then performed in musical settings by moi plus Katherine Edison, soprano; Linda Mehrabian, cello; Robert Armstead, bass-baritone; and Don Fischer, oboe. A champagne reception on the deck follows the concert. Admission at the door: $20 general, $15 members of the Alliance Française, FREE to students and teachers. Dear Members and Friends,

Annah and I are in the mode of getting rid of stuff! I have always had a tendency to hang on to too much far too long—what an arduous task it is to let go of things. But it also has its bright moments. The other day, I was reading through a bunch of special sayings and came across this one, which I shared this morning at the Stevenson School assembly. I can't recall where it originated, but think it may well have been from Annah's collection. I want now to share with you. It packs a punch and is something that both the students and we members of the congregation can benefit from:

Did you know?

Hate has 4 letters,

But so does Love.

Hurt has 4 letters

But so does Heal.

Lying has 5 letters

But so does Truth.

Enemies has 7 letters

But so does Friends.

Every day each of us gets the chance to transform the negative into the positive. There is no time like today to put that goodness into action. Have a great week!

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
