Cary started playing the piano in second grade, flute in the third grade and, continuing until the end of high school in San Bernardino, California. Like most, he stopped once he started college at the University of California at Riverside. However, at UCR he did learn to play the carillon and in the summer of 1973 played the advancement recital at the University of Indiana and was accepted into the Guild of Carillonneurs of North America. He restarted his flute playing ten years ago, primarily working on solos with the help of his current flute teacher Ursi Frei.

He works as a meteorologist and software developer for the U.S. Navy in Monterey. He has a B.S. degree in physics and an M.S in astrophysics. One of his more exiting jobs in his younger days was spending a year at the South Pole station overseeing the aerosol experiments for the Universities of Maryland and Rhode Island.

Besides playing flute as an amateur, Cary is an avid swimmer competing in Masters swim meets and various open water events. During the past fifteen years he has been ranked in the US Masters Swimming top ten for his age group in the 200 meter breaststroke, 200 meter butterfly and 400 meter individual medley events. His fiancé, an American citizen who lives in Brazil and has been there for almost 40 years, is also an avid swimmer. When they are together, they manage to compete in pool meets and open swims in the United States and Brazil.

Monday morning, October 12, 2015

Dear Members and Friends,

Saturday was a very special day for both Annah and me, in that it was my high privilege to “marry off” Annah’s daughter, Micah, to John Alex. Family members came from, of course Texas, and from as far away as France and Germany. It’s strange how I get more nervous performing weddings for my own family than for others. Everything went off without a hitch with lots of laughter and a few tears. The couple left for home on Monday the Twelfth, and we will bask in the rich memories of an intimate family affair that we will never forget, and, probably shed a few tears as well, Annah being the lead there!

Opposite is a shot from the big event.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland

ANNOUNCEMENT: The beautiful flowers adorning the altar this past Sunday were graciously “donated” to Church in the Forest by the Jim and Nancy Hoak family after the wedding of their daughter, Maggie, on Saturday, October 10, 2015, at CitF. Folks were invited to “help themselves” to the lovely blooms at the conclusion of the service on Sunday and many did!
