Dear Members and Friends,

Sometimes I get a piece from a friend and imagine that it may well be of enlightenment to others as it has been for me. Here is one of those gifts that I want to share with you today:

You can do this

There isn't a person alive who doesn't want to make changes.
Every single person has something he can improve upon.
Whether it's the giving up a bad habit,
making more money,
being physically fit
or any number of things, there's always some room to grow—
to become a better person.
Thousands of people consider making an effort,
yet there are few who successfully reach their goals.
You can be one of those few.
The power is within yourself.
It's in believing you can,
in knowing that you are the only one who can change you.
You can begin at any moment, regardless of past mistakes or failures.
The present and the future

are yours to live the way you want to.
Faith and discipline and attitude and perception are keys to success.
Commit yourself, your time,
and your efforts
to allow the person you are...
to become the person you want to be.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
