Gymnopédie I (1888)

Prélude De La Porte Héroïque Du Ciel (1894)

(Prelude of the heroic gate of heaven)

The original Olympic Games festival from 3500 years ago was actually a sacred rite dedicated to Zeus. It lasted one day and consisted of a single footrace the length of a stadium. The contestants competed in the nude, and the prize of victory was a wreath (no contracts, no endorsements). Men only, if you're wondering. By the time Greece lost its independence to Rome, the games had expanded to five spectacular days, complete with professional athletes, banquets, and public entertainment, a short step to today's extravaganza. The conjunction of the ATT and the Winter Olympics cries out for the choice of Satie's "Sports and Diversions." Like a New Yorker cartoon, these brilliant caricatures are masterpieces of wit and ironic observation. The three Gymnopédies honor the festival of ancient Sparta, the Gymnopaïdai (which followed the Zeus festival by several centuries). This event featured contests and choruses, including the gymnopaïdike (choral dances) performed by naked men and boys. The cornerstone of Greek education was gymnastics, music, and no women allowed.

For more Satie, Pascale Deliens Richards and I will present a lecture-recital this Sunday, February 9, at 3 PM in Del Mesa's Redwood Room as a benefit for local scholarships for French studies, admission by donation. Women are welcome! Men in clothes are welcome, too.

Dear Members and Friends,

Marilyn Kren is the Membership Chair on the Church Board, and she has come up with the great idea of reaching out with a friendly invitation to the community. She presented the idea to the Board at our last meeting and there was real excitement about the idea.

You will see below a draft of a template that the office will make available to you this Sunday. Just pick up however many copies you may need, fill in the name, sign it, add a PS if you like, and send it off to a lucky friend who might enjoy our fellowship.

Dear _____

I am sending this letter because we at the Church in the Forest love our Church so much that we want to share it with our friends—this means you.

We are a congenial, multi-denominational group lead by a Presbyterian minister, a Methodist minister and a Baptist minister. At least one of them every Sunday gives us a “wee” thought for the day or week or for the rest of our lives.

In addition, this is what you are missing:

(1) A mini-concert every week at 9:15 AM by Melinda Coffey Armstead and frequently other professional musicians ... sometimes singers or other instrumentalists. What a wonderful way to start the day!

(2) After the service (9:30 to 10:30 AM) a chance to socialize while eating delicious home-baked cookies and drinking coffee, tea or lemonade.

(3) Valet parking paid for (including the tip) by the Church. (The valets are very handy with walkers, canes, etc.)

---

It does seem that there is lots of singing, hugging and smiling that goes on every Sunday. We would love to have you join us some Sunday. How about giving it a try?

Warmly,

Many thanks for your help to spread the good news about the Church in the Forest and its ministry.

See you in Church

William B. Rolland
