If your toes want tapping you've come to the right Sunday, as Dixieland Jazz is our Mardi Gras connection. "Dixieland" most often refers to the work of certain white (!!!) jazz musicians, deriving from the name of the first important group of this kind, the "Original Dixieland Jazz Band," a group of five white guys (cornet, trombone, clarinet, drums and piano) from New Orleans. It was an unusual, indelible mixture of black jazz and white middle class dance music. Anyway, they moved to Chicago in 1916 and to New York a year later, skyrocketing to fame, until the mid 1920s, when they ran out of gas, answering the cultural imperative to get out of music and into something "respectable" and profitable.

For more music, Dixieland Monterey will present its annual "Jazz Bash By The Bay" on March 6-7-8 at the Portola Plaza. This is a nationally-recognized program of Traditional and Classic Jazz. Enjoy!

Dear Members and Friends,

Just a minute!

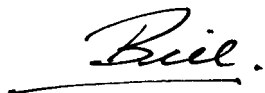

There are not too many emails that I receive that are worth passing along! Some are objectionable for their political stance and, rather than believing that we all have to sing from the same party political song sheet, I love the idea that we as Americans feel free to express ourselves whatever our stance.

This one is good for all of us and gets a hearty “Amen” from me and is now part of my daily routine.

Someone has said that if Christians really understood the full extent of the power we have available through prayer, we might be speechless. During WWII, there was an adviser to Churchill who organized a group of people who dropped what they were doing every day at a prescribed hour for one minute to collectively pray for the safety of Britain, its people and peace. There is now a group of people organizing the same thing here in America. If you'd like to participate just stop whatever you are doing at 5:00 pm, and spend one minute praying for the safety of the United States and for a return to a Godly nation.

Please feel free to join other members and friends in this wee project, which has the possibility of being spiritually powerful for our Church in the Forest, as well as our nation.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
