Dear Members and Friends,

“God You Know”

I have had several members of my family and friends who have suffered with Alzheimer’s Disease. Often every day is a struggle for them as well as for those who provide their care and support. It is extremely painful to see a loved one deteriorate from an intelligent and articulate person into a confused and fearful shadow of his/her former self. The frustration of always being asked and having to answer the same questions over and over is paired by one’s tremendous guilt of losing patience with a friend/loved one at times. The ongoing grief for the loss of the friend/loved one I once knew is so great that I sometimes just break down and cry.

Like Ezekiel, I feel as if I am standing in the middle of the desert, looking at lifeless scenery, feeling hopeless, lonely and scared. There is always a temptation to give up, to be overwhelmed by desperation, to indulge in the sense of despair, but when Ezekiel answered God’s question of “Mortal, can these bones live?” with “Oh Lord God, you know,” he demonstrated his faith and trust in God. Ezekiel knows that despite what it may seem, God is at work. When we are confronted with struggles and suffering, God is there with us. When we are afraid to move forward, God breathes his spirit within us and gives us a renewed life and hope.

Without the cross, there would be no resurrection. Without Lent, there can be no Easter. Without tribulations, it is hard to understand what hope really is. Sometimes we find ourselves in situations that appear hopeless, perhaps instead of questioning or arguing with God, let us put our trust in God and say, “God, you know.” Let God be at work in our life, let his spirit restore us.

See you in church.
