It is my pleasure to welcome Mary Clare Martin to Church in the Forest for the first time. Music attracted her at age three, when she tried to copy her older brother who was taking piano lessons. When she started to pick out recognizable melodies, her lessons started in earnest, first from her father then from Sister Anastasia in parochial school. Fast forward through lots of church music, high school music, and a couple of degrees. She has taught students of all ages through junior college, sung, directed and accompanied community choruses and church choirs, given private lessons, and done lots of accompanying. She now teaches music at Toro Park School pre K - 3rd, works a couple of afternoons at Bookmark Music, subs in a variety of churches and sings with Madregalia. Please give her your warmest welcome.

I'll be back April 26 with Katherine Edison, soprano, and Roy Madsen, flute.

Dear Members and Friends,

It's all about Character!

I think it can be said that I have the best job anyone could wish for. The Church in the Forest is, and has been, the most wonderful place to serve. Annah and I have terrific friends whom we will want to be part of our lives for a very long time to come. Being the school chaplain here at Stevenson is also such an honor, and yet it is filled with challenges and the demands of the young.

Every Monday and Friday at the school Assembly I am expected to open the gathering time with words of wisdom. Do you know how hard it is to come up with something of substance and meaning for a bunch of teenagers? Well, today's was one of the best!

I told the Assembly about this 21-year-old who not only won the Masters Golf Tournament, but he did it with such style and dignity that it blew my mind. His score was one thing—a minus 18—but it was his character that shone through. He would compliment his partner when he made a good shot, and then when he celebrated as the winner, he went over to his mom and dad and gave them a mighty big hug. Then he turned to the crowd and applauded them. What character, what grace!

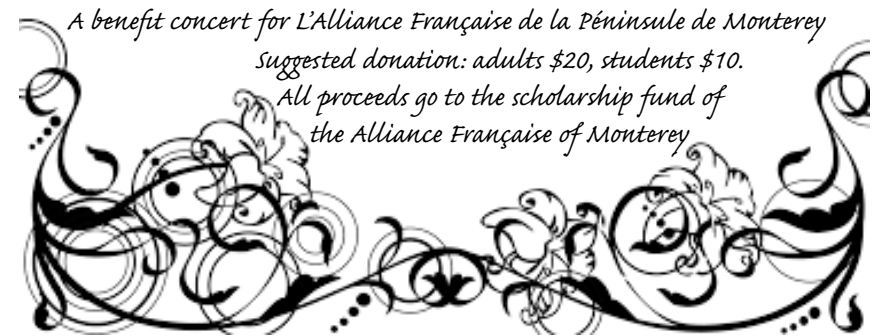

The game of golf is all about playing your best and at the same time relaxing enough to be in touch with your essence. It seems to me that there is a spiritual truth, which we need to take on board and be the best that we can be. And you never know, it might even improve our game!

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
