I know the sweet truth of the saying: “three of the best things about being a teacher are June, July and August.” With time on my hands, “the days dripping away like honey off a spoon,” (Wallace Stegner), I’ve put together a program celebrating Summer. I agree with Henry James: “Summer afternoon—summer afternoon; to me those have always been two of the most beautiful words in the English language.” So sit back and enjoy, and remember: if you’ve got a lot to do, better get your nap out of the way first.

Dear Members and Friends,

A great friend and solid church member sent me the following:
Enjoy!

One Liners on the Life of Faith

Don't let your worries get the best of you;
Remember, Moses started out as a basket case.

Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited
—until you try to sit in their pews.

Many folks want to serve God
But only as advisers.

It is easier to preach ten sermons
Than it is to live one.

The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose,
But mosquitoes come close.

When you get to your wit's end,
You'll find God lives there.

People are funny; they want the front of the bus,
Middle of the road, And back of the church.

Opportunity may knock once,
But temptation bangs on the front door forever.

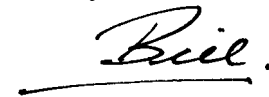

Quit griping about your church;
If it were perfect, you couldn't belong.

If a church wants a better pastor,
It only needs to pray for the one it has.

We're called to be witnesses, not lawyers or judges.
Even God doesn't propose to judge a man until he is dead. So why should you?

Peace starts with a smile.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
