Silent Noon

Your hands lie open in the long fresh grass,
 the finger-points look through like rosy blooms:
 Your eyes smile peace.
 The pasture gleams and glooms
 ‘neath billowing skies that scatter and amass.
 All round our nest, far as the eye can pass,
 are golden kingcup-fields with silver edge
 Where the cow-parsley skirts the hawthorn-hedge.
 ‘tis visible silence, still as the hour-glass.

Deep in the sun-searched growths the dragon-fly
 hangs like a blue thread loosened from the sky:
 So this wing’d hour is dropt to us from above.
 Oh! clasp we to our hearts, for deathless dower,
 This close-companioned inarticulate hour
 when twofold silence was the song of love.

—Dante Gabriel Rossetti (1828–1882)

Dear Members and Friends,

Well, the first Sunday with valet parking went well, while we didn't have many "takers," those who did use the service were delighted with the young men who formed the team to take care of us. Here are some positive expressions from a few of those who used the valet parking:

"It takes all the worry out of finding a parking place and, in fact, it sets the tone for me to worship, without the hassle of remembering where did I park that thing..."

"What a great idea! I so enjoyed being greeted right at the car by such charming young men who were so ready to help. Congratulations to the church for coming up with such a wonderful idea."

One of the Church Board members used the service and reported: "I love it! What a tremendous help and it just made me feel ready to worship." She had a big smile on her face as she spoke.

Each Sunday, the valet service personnel will be at the church ready to park your vehicle from 8:45 and will be available until 11:00 am. Please know that when you use the service, you do not need to tip the attendants, as the price of this service includes the gratuity. The Board decided that the Church would cover that cost, with one of our members giving a significant gift to make all that happen.

A special "Thank you" is in order to Carol Sullivan for getting this service off the ground.

I know that it will continue to be much appreciated.

A thought for the day:

Stevenson school, faculty and students during assemblies say together a prayer written by Robert Louis Stevenson, the school's namesake. It is one that I say at least once a day. You may want to join me.

O Lord, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulations, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving one to another. Amen.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
