

Music Box

— SEPTEMBER 29, 2013 —

Arnie Buss, violin
Carol Kuzdenyi, piano

I Come to the Garden Alone
Hymn tune: Garden..... Austin Miles, 1913
arr. Catherine McMichael (b. 1954)

Vocalise, Op. 34,
No. 14 (1916)..... Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873-1943)

Summertime
from Porgy and Bess..... George Gershwin (1898-1937)

Et Exsultavit Spiritus Meus (And My Spirit Rejoices)
from Magnificat J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

The Prayer..... Carole Bayer Sager (b. 1947)
and David Foster (b. 1949)

Canticle of the Sun..... Marty Haugen (b. 1950)

Painless and Economical

If you use the internet, why don't you have the weekly newsletter sent to you via email? It is fast, easy and saves the church money — here's what to do, Send an email to the office at: cif@mbay.net and ask Sherry to put you on the list. You will receive it early every week!

Church in the Forest
at Erdman Chapel, Stevenson School
3152 Forest Lake Road, Pebble Beach
P. O. Box 1027, Pebble Beach, CA 93953
Address service requested

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 28
Pebble Beach, CA
93953

Church in the Forest

at Erdman Chapel, Stevenson School
3152 Forest Lake Road, Pebble Beach
P. O. Box 1027, Pebble Beach, CA 93953 • 831-624-1374
email: citf@mbay.net • www.churchintheforest.org

Monday morning, September 23, 2013

Dear Members and Friends,

Humility is a medicine that is sometimes hard to swallow. Our ego digestive tract finds ways to avoid it like the plague. Reminds me of the way I fought to avoid castor oil when a child. Now a bit of Mary Poppins wisdom never hurt and so we can learn from the line, "A little sugar makes the medicine go down," the sugar in this case being humor.

Nothing beats humor in getting some humility into the system. Ministers are always prescribing humility, but like doctors who often poorly medicate themselves, they don't always practice what they preach. So a few examples of sugar-coated humility.

A preacher was standing in the receiving line after his first service. Everyone was telling him what a nice sermon it was, when a strange-looking guy came through the line, grabbed his hand and said, "Preacher, that was the worst sermon I ever heard."

The preacher was a little surprised but went right on shaking hands. A few minutes later the same guy came through the line again. This time he said, "That sermon had nothing to do with the text."

Later this same fellow showed up again and said, "Preacher, if all your sermons are as boring as that one, I'm never coming here again."

At that point, a considerate member of the Pastor-Parish Committee drew the minister aside and said, "Don't worry about him. He's just a little crazy. He just repeats what he hears everyone else saying."

I like this one. As a minister stood in the receiving line, a woman came up and gushed, "Oh pastor, your sermon was superfluous, simply superfluous."

"I'm glad you liked it," he said, And then trying for a little humor he added, "I hope to have it published posthumously."

"Wonderful, just wonderful," she exclaimed. "I hope it will be soon!"

And then there was a young bride whose husband was ushering one Sunday. During the service she began worrying that she may have left the roast cooking in the oven. She wrote a note to her husband and passed it to him by way of another usher.

The latter, thinking it was note for the pastor hurried down the aisle and laid it on the pulpit. Stopping abruptly in the middle of his sermon to read the note, the astonished minister read the following: "Please go home and turn off the gas."

Yours in the interest of sugar-coated medicine.

See you in church,

Charles C. Anker

Calendar

Sunday, September 29, 2013

8:30 AM Bible Study with the Rev. Charles Anker
Topic: The Letter to the Hebrews 11:30-12:1
The Faith Which Defied the Facts

9:15 AM Music Prelude

9:30 AM Morning Prayer

Passages Hosea 11:1-11; Psalm 271-6; Luke 16: 1-13

Lector Judy Fletcher

Crucifer Judy Fletcher

Flowers Janet and Niels Reimers

Cookies Stevenson Bakers

Altar Care Martha Jordan and Susie Pearson

Ushers Bob Janzen and Jack Davis

Sermon The Rev. Dr. William B. Rolland

Title Choose Your Words Carefully

Sunday, September 29, 2013 — Fall Anniversary Party, 5:00-7:00 pm at the home of Nancy and Joe Verska, 2817 17-Mile Drive, Pebble Beach.

Contact the church office to reserve your place!

Sunday, October 6, 2013. Holy Communion, receive new members during church and the Blessing of the Animals afterwards on the grass.

Sunday, October 13, 2013. Dedication of the Plaques in the Memorial Garden following the service.