Marianne Powers and her husband, John F. Powers, have been a part of the Stevenson family since 1969. John taught English and Latin for 34 years and coached the golf team for 27 years. Marianne taught Latin for five years and later driver education for 10 years between raising three children, all Stevenson alumni. Marianne's daughter, Katie Klevan, carries on the Stevenson tradition as a teacher at the Stevenson Carmel campus and coach of the middle school golf team. She also directs the Stevenson Summer Camp together with her husband, Tony Klevan, also a Stevenson graduate, whose father Rob Klevan taught music at Stevenson for 27 years. (John Powers passed away in March, 2003.)

Marianne, Arnie, and I worked together almost every weekend at St. Angela Merici Catholic Church in Pacific Grove while I was music director there (2001-2008). I am very grateful to the Church in the Forest community for giving us this opportunity to work together for the first time since 2008, and to share with you a few of our favorite pieces.
