A warm welcome to I Cantori di Carmel! We are indeed fortunate to begin our Advent celebrations with the artistry of this distinguished vocal ensemble. They are celebrating their 31st anniversary this year with two winter concerts, "Blessed Be the Time," in the golden acoustics of the historic Carmel Mission Basilica on Saturday and Sunday December 8 and 9 at 8 pm. Conductor Sal Ferrantelli will be assisted by pianist Pauline Troia, and brass ensemble in works by Pinkham, Gabrieli, Holst, Rachmaninoff, Rheinberger, Bloch and others. Tickets are $20 General Admission; $25 Reserved Section (front 8 rows).

Our Advent lineup this year is December 9, Katherine Edison, soprano; December 16, RLS Chamber Singers; December 23, Wildcoast Brass; December 24, Karen Neal, mezzo-soprano, Jos Milton, tenor, Robert Armstead, bass-baritone, Julia Jakkell, violin, Brian Neal, trumpet, and MCA, keyboards; December 25, MCA. EnJOY!

Dear Members and Friends,

Advent Season means waiting, and I don't know about you, but I don't wait well. So for me, this Advent time is a real learning experience. Won't you join me in asking the Good Lord what does this all mean and why is the world in the state it's in and can't we (you) do something about it? And yet, it is also one of the most meaningful times with a depth and breadth that often surprises us.

It will give me great pleasure this Sunday to introduce to you our new Office Manager, Sherry St. Clair. She and Kay have been working together this past week and Sherry appears to be having as good a time as Kay, so we're off and running. Be sure to greet Sherry at Coffee Hour after Sunday's service. Also this Sunday, the Rev. Natalie Stewart is in the pulpit. Natalie also leads a Visitation Group that reaches out to shut-ins and shares with them our love as well as God's.

You won't want to miss the following Sunday, December 9, when we will have a special Coffee Hour to express our love and appreciation to Kay for her fourteen years of service and friendship to all of us.

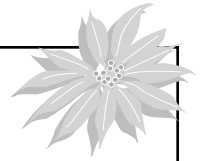

Then mark you calendars for Saturday, December 15, at 10:00 am, for the dressing of the Church for Christmas.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
