Joseph Hedlind is a classically trained guitarist, newly returned from studies at U.C. Berkeley. Before Berkeley he studied for nearly ten years with Terrence Farrell, a critically acclaimed classical guitarist, well-known to audiences on the Peninsula and beyond. He returns with new-found passion for the guitar, and for a repertoire that includes not only familiar chestnuts, but some of the other kind too.

We heard him play at the Farmer’s Market in Monterey and we can vouch for his formidable talent and excellent taste. Please give him your warmest welcome.

Dear Members and Friends,

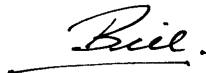

WOW! What an outstanding evening Friday was for a very fortunate group from Church in the Forest. Together, we attended the Stevenson's Disney Musical on Stage in the Keck auditorium. Prior to the concert, we met for some refreshments in the multipurpose room and, after getting to know people from Monterey to Minneapolis and places in between, we made our way to the big event.

I have to say that it was one of the best musical productions that I have seen. Something close to sixty students took part and worked their socks off. Our very own acolyte, Jacob McCarthy, blew us away with his stellar performance of dad.

One of the thrills about serving the Church in the Forest and being so intimately connected and supportive of Stevenson School is that there are so many opportunities to be involved with the greater community.

The chapel got a "shout out" during the Golf Tournament, when Jim Nantz announced that one of his colleagues was married at the Stevenson School Chapel the day before. And what a darling couple they were too! Congratulations to the newlyweds, Tyler and Dianne!

Blessings and see you all in church,

Willilam B. Rolland

According to a January article in the New York Times, about 150,000 people are enrolled nationally in more than 119 Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes (OLLI) at colleges and universities. They join for the brain stimulation, the camaraderie, for the pursuit of knowledge. CSUMB hosts the program, the classes—scheduled from one-day offerings to several days and "geared" to people fifty and older—coming across like a tasty buffet of intellectual inquiry.

Melinda Coffey Armstead will be leading such a session on "How the French Fell in Love with Japan." The opening of Japan in 1854 hit the French art scene with an incoming tide of images, objects and textiles that revolutionized the arts in France. Accompanied by a stunning slide presentation featuring Japanese netsuke, wood block prints, and works by French Impressionists and Post-impressionists, pianist and art historian Melinda Coffey Armstead will examine the strong Japanese influence on French art. Included in the program is an enchanting live performance of the piano music of Debussy.
