Autumn Day

Lord it is time. The summer was enormous.
Lay down your shadow on the sundials,
And on the meadows set the winds free.
Command the last fruits to fullness;
Grant them two more southerly days,
Press them toward perfection and chase
The last sweetness into the heavy wine.

—Rainier Maria Rilke (1875-1926)

Dear Members and Friends,

Our 29th Fall Function was a fabulous gathering! Beautiful settings of delicious food, festive wines, flowing rooms full of new and old friends, a day so warm we lingered outside into evening, and our hosts, the Verska's, welcoming us with joy and generosity.

Special and uniquely Church-in-the-Forest was the common thread of people caring for each other. I saw this in the listening, hugging and long conversations going on in every room. This is a party—and a church—where you are welcomed and beloved, embraced as a sister and brother of faith.

Even in the swirl of conversations and unplanned encounters, we know we've been placed here by God to be a blessing to each other. You are all a blessing to me, indeed!
