HOME TO ROOST

It's a fine thing to fly away.
Whether it's even finer
To fly back home,
Well, that's an open question.
But not to me.

Drizzle drizzle drozzle drone,
Time for this one to come home.

Dear Members and Friends,

I find Armistice/Veteran's Day a very moving ceremony and am glad and proud that we include it as part of the service on the Sunday preceding 11/11. Yesterday was no exception. As I looked over the congregation and saw those men and women who were standing, having served their country, I was again moved to see in their faces the resolve that what they had given in times of war, they would do again. It is not that we glorify war in such a ceremony, but rather give thanks for those that gave the ultimate sacrifice and thank all those who returned from the battlefield.

Today in Stevenson School Assembly, the faculty, staff and student body paused for a few moments to honor all who served, and we prayed for peace in the world. And my own prayer was that none of these young people would see the carnage of war. We then presented this Scottish prayer/blessing.

A Scottish Blessing

If there is righteousness in the heart
There will be beauty in the character.
If there is beauty in the character
There will be harmony in the home
If there is harmony in the home
There will be order in the nation
If there is order in the nation
There will be peace in the world

---

So let it be! May the Lord be with you, now and always!

See you in church,

William B. Rolland

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Church Board has set aside this Sunday, November 15, following the morning service, to dedicate the plaques in the memorial garden that have been placed in remembrance of loved ones. This will be a very special day in the life of the church. After enjoying a cup of coffee on the deck, we will all be invited to move into the Memorial Garden for the Dedication Ceremony.

In this season of gratitude, expectation and sharing, might you consider helping the Salvation Army by ringing the bell at the Pebble Beach Post Office beginning the day after Thanksgiving? Judy Stayduhar will be taking sign-ups on Sunday during the coffee hour or you may call 655-4985 to schedule a time.
