A warm welcome to Heidi Tarquin Van der Veer, who was born in Carmel and grew up in Santa Barbara. She received her B.A. in Performing Arts-Voice from the University of Hawaii. While earning her degree, she appeared with the Hawaii Opera Theater Studio, also performing as a solo wedding singer, and throughout the Hawaiian Islands as a member of the Hawaii Vocal Arts Ensemble and the Kanilehua Chorale. In demand as a soloist for church services, she held jobs with the St. Andrew's Cathedral Choir, and Church of The Crossroads in Honolulu, and at Holy Cross in Hilo.

Her performing background includes the role of Cherubino in an avant-gard production of Mozart's Le Nozze di Figaro at the Teatro Signorelli in Cortona, Italy. She appeared in recital and chamber music concerts with the Studio Lirico in central and northern Italy. Her interest in the vocal music of J.S. Bach led to further study of the baroque period, including two summers at Oberlin Conservatory's Baroque Performance Institute, and she has been a member of the Carmel Bach Festival Chorus.

After years of travel and study abroad she once again calls the Monterey Peninsula her home where she teaches voice and piano at her Van der Veer Studio for Music and the Arts, located on Carmel Rancho Blvd. Heidi has also been pursuing a career as a jazz singer, and her group Tarquinia Jazz will perform at the Pacific Grove Arts center in October and January. Join the Tarquinia email list at: tarquiniaq@yahoo.com for information on upcoming performances.

Dear members and friends,

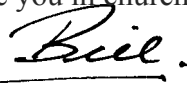

This is the final week of the Olympics and what a thrill it is for athletes competing from all over the world, as well as for us viewers! I don't know about you, but I have been glued to the coverage. I wish I could watch them live and sense the thrill of seeing these well-trained individuals from around the globe giving their very best to take home a gold. But if I could watch all that I would like to see, I would be a taking home the gold as a winning couch potato!

What a magnificent display of talent, strength and courage. All of us, I am sure, have been moved by many of these young people, by their tremendous ability, but also because of their gracious attitude and humility. Take, for example, Michael Phelps, from Baltimore and now known around the world as the man who won the most medals ever! His openness and pleasant accepting way and his willingness to give advice and encouragement to members of the team USA was powerful. With character like that we are in good hands.

Then there is that delightful 6'1" seventeen-year-old from Colorado, Missy Franklin, who walked away with so many medals and, I don't know about you, but I was moved when listening to her giving thanks to her Mom and Dad as well as her teammates. The world is a good place with young people like that who are Olympians of character!

As followers of the Christ, we, too, are encouraged to reach for that goal of living lives well pleasing to God and helpful therefore to those whose lives we touch—in that way, we too take home “the Gold.”

See you in church,

William B. Rolland

For your prayers: CitF Board President, Sam Griffith, is improving at Westland House. Ada Anker is home after being in CHOMP for about a week. Mary Ellen Hutchison is now home after back surgery, and Luana Wilsey is at present at CHOMP, but is looking good, and will be home in a few days. Please also remember our Texas/Carmel friends, Gretchen and Jerry Fronterhouse, as they deal with health issues. Our prayers are with them and with all who are in need.
