Work for the Night is Coming..... Annie Coghil/Lowell Mason

Nice Work If You Can Get It

The man who only lives for making money
Lives a life that isn't necessarily sunny.
Like-wise the man who lives for fame,
There's no guarantee that time won't erase his name.
The fact is, the only work that really brings enjoyment
Is the kind that is for girl and boy meant.
Fall in love and you won't regret it,
That's the best work of all if you can get it.

—Ira Gershwin

Work

...is half one's life—and the other half, too. —Erich Kastner
...the greatest thing in the world, so we should always save some of it for tomorrow. —Don Herold

Dear Members and Friends,

It is a joy to introduce to you Ken Feske, who will be helping us out a couple of days a week. He will minister to the members of the congregation who have been so faithful in the past and now need us to minister to them where they are, and Ken plans to explore effective ways to accomplish that. Give him and his wife Nancy a warm welcome.

With over thirty years of providing guidance in religious, educational and community sectors, we are fortunate to have Ken Feske join us as an associate minister at Church in the Forest. From 1981-1989, Ken was the senior pastor at Monte Vista Baptist Church of Phoenix, AZ, where he developed a city-wide, multi-service resource for home-bound persons, which involved 2500 volunteers from 53 congregations giving 70,000 hours annually. He also initiated a senior midweek luncheon with an average attendance of 180 people.

From 1989-2006, Ken was the senior pastor at First Baptist Church in Salinas where, among many other important accomplishments, he started the popular Streets of Bethlehem, a living Nativity and village that attracts 20,000+ people each Christmas season.

More recently, Ken has been with University Corporation at California State University Monterey Bay, as Soledad Street Revitalization Project Director from 2007 through this past June, providing administrative support, community-based planning, as well as teaching and securing grants.

When asked for a statement, Ken responded, "I am honored and excited with the opportunity of being part of the pastoral team at Church in the Forest. Being back in parish ministry after seven years at the university brings me back to where my heart has always been. CitF is a special community of believers who are joyfully committed to Jesus' central focus of compassion. Nancy and I are grateful to be a part of this family. If I can be of support to you, please give me that opportunity."

Ken hit the ground running and is already working on several exciting endeavors certain to enhance our spiritual experiences. Details will be forthcoming as we finalize arrangements. And by the way, with Ken comes his lovely and talented wife, Nancy Borino.

Please take the opportunity to visit with Ken and Nancy during fellowship. I think you'll appreciate the enthusiasm, joy, and love of God that emanates from this pair.

See you in church,

William B. Rolland
