ON VETERANS DAY

The gift they gave to us is all around us, undeserved,
Except by those who gave themselves, or loved ones, reassured
By no one that their innocence and lives would not be lost.
Our freedom was the prize, egregious sacrifice the cost.
They paid, and benefits rain gently down on us, but we Remember: freedom such as ours was never, ever, free.

Dear Members and Friends,

My mother was a stickler for her wee offspring saying thanks for whatever came his way. That wasn't always easy in that some of our well-meaning neighbors would give us their leftovers both in food and clothes. The trouble was that most of the goodies came from the Leitch family who had more girls than they had boys, so some of the "goodies" were certainly not going to be on my back. But mom would always say, "Well, she meant well...." Saying thanks for me was simply an obligatory necessity for something I didn't like or want.

Yet, I have to say that I really do enjoy the Thanksgiving Season, and from Annah and me and all the church staff, we wish for you a very happy and meaningful Thanksgiving Day! Sunday, November 23, is when we celebrate this season of giving, and present to God our pledges for the coming year.

We join our voices together to thank you for your wonderful generosity over the months and years, as you have supported and prayed for our church, making it the great place of worship that it is.

THANK YOU!

Bill Leitch Ken Melinda Mary

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are grateful to those who contributed fabric squares for the Thanksgiving Altar Table Skirt and Lectern Scarf. Gratitude is also in order to the contributors to the Advent booklet—which will soon be available to CitF-ers and friends. Watch this space for updates.

Please note that the 2015 Flower Rota is posted on the bulletin board outside the chapel on Sundays. Please sign up if you wish to sponsor flowers on a certain Sunday. Also available on the bulletin board are sign-up sheets for Sunday lay assistance as a reader, crucifer, usher, and the ever-popular cookie baker/sponsor.

There will be a memorial service for Trish Berg Whitmore at Canterbury Woods—date to be announced.
