Dear Members and Friends,

I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come around, as a good time... a kind, forgiving, charitable time. It is the only time I know of in the long calendar of the year when men and women seem, of one mind, to open their closed hearts freely, and to think of people around them as if they really were fellow passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys.

I do come home at Christmas. We all do, or we all should. We all come home, or ought to come home, for a short holiday—the longer, the better—from the great boarding school where we are forever working at our arithmetical slates, to take, and give a rest.

—Charles Dickens

A blessed Christmas and wonderful New Year to each and all of you.
